

We are building a team of mindful, intellectually rigorous and values-driven attorneys.

We advise people and companies on their legal needs, from startup founders, investors, asset managers, executives, HR departments, employees, athletes, families, to international companies, associations or NGO's.

We work in team, horizontally, in a fair, flexible and fun environment. We are committed to building a culture in which people are growing personally and professionally.

We are currently looking for :

A Trainee Lawyer, 100%, based in Lausanne

(starting officially in January 2021, but possible to start immediately as a trainee)

If you are enthusiastic about helping companies face the modern legal challenges (e.g. employment law, dispute resolution, structuring – domestic and international – partnerships, drafting contracts, ensuring compliance with data protection regulations, recovering debts, launching new projects);

If you are able to express yourself clearly in French and English (German is also an asset) and explain legal implications to clients;

If you have excellent qualifications, a strong work ethic, a learning mindset and a team spirit;

We are looking forward to receiving your application. Please send it including your curriculum vitae, academic reports, term papers and other common documents to the attention of Mr Jonathan Bory (jonathan@bory-legal.ch).
